RAM Technologies Named on Philadelphia Business Journal's List of Top Software Developers

FORT WASHINGTON, PENN. – October 19, 2010 - RAM Technologies, Inc., a leading developer of enterprise software solutions for the healthcare industry has once again been recognized by the Philadelphia Business Journal as one of the top software development firms in the Philadelphia metropolitan area. RAM Technologies' solutions include HEALTHsuite® and eHealthsuite™.

HEALTHsuite is an enterprise wide application with fully integrated functionality to support all aspects of a health plan's business. HEALTHsuite offers extensive automation capabilities for benefit administration, eligibility / enrollment, provider contracting & reimbursement, medical & utilization management, premium billing, care management, claims adjudication, overpayment recovery, capitation, subrogation, customer service and more.

eHealthsuite is a real-time web portal product that provides self service access to information for members, providers, brokers and employer groups via a secure Internet connection. Together, HEALTHsuite and eHealthsuite provide health plans with an unmatched solution to streamline health plan operations and reduce the traditional demands and costs associated with high-volume Customer Service telephone calls.

“It is an honor to once again be recognized by the Philadelphia Business Journal for our work in developing advanced solutions to automate the complexities of healthcare administration” stated Robert A. Tulio, President of RAM Technologies. “Being named as a Top Software Developer is an affirmation of our approach and is a tribute to the dedicated staff at RAM Technologies.”

The Top Software Developers List is published annually by the Philadelphia Business Journal. The list recognizes the Philadelphia region's top software development companies.
